

Arkansas City Clerks, Records & Treasurers Association

Constitution

ARTICLE I: Name

Section 1:

The organization shall be known as the Arkansas City Clerks, Records & Treasurers Association and hereinafter will be referred to as the Association.

ARTICLE II: Purpose & Objectives

Section 1:

The purpose of this organization shall be to improve the administration of local government through officials and/or persons vested with the powers and duties commonly known as City Clerks, Records and Treasurers. All such officials or persons referred to will hereinafter be called City Clerks, Records and Treasurers. The objectives include, but are not limited to the following: to perpetuate and develop the organization as a body within the Arkansas Municipal League, for the cooperation of City Clerks, Records and Treasurers of Arkansas cities and towns, to promote the application of the best methods of conducting the affairs of the Offices of City Clerks, Records and Treasurers, to promote and support legislation for the benefit of the Municipalities in harmony with the advocates of the Arkansas Municipal League, to provide a better knowledge of the needs of the Municipalities to the public generally, to safeguard the autonomy of the Municipality in its relation to the education of its citizenship and the existence toward continuity of a citizenship free from dictatorial powers of a person or persons.

Arkansas City Clerks, Recorders & Treasurers Association

ARTICLE III: Membership

Section 1: Membership Classes:

Those persons, as previously defined, in the State of Arkansas are eligible for membership in the association. Membership of the City Clerks, Recorders & Treasurers Association shall have four classes: active, retired, honorary and associate and shall be composed entirely of Municipalities having paid up membership dues in the Arkansas Municipal League.

- A. Active Members: Active members are defined as those City Clerks, Recorders and Treasurers and their deputies whose annual dues have been paid prior to the annual meeting. A deputy is defined as working in the Clerk's office whose core duties include a majority of the core duties listed below as certified by the clerk or recorder.
1. Secretariat to the elected body.
 2. Meetings of that body and any subordinate committee, boards or commissions.
 3. Preparation of agendas, minutes and official documents of such bodies.
 4. Maintenance and preservation of bylaws, ordinances, or other legal instruments of the elected body.
 5. Custody of the municipal seal and the execution of official documents.
 6. Management of records and archives of the elected body.
 7. Administration of oaths of office and document certification.
 8. Administration of elections, as applicable.
- B. Retired Members: Members who retire from office may continue their membership as nonvoting members.

Arkansas City Clerks, Recorders & Treasurers Association

- C. Honorary Members: Members who have held Active Memberships in the Association for a period of not less than eight (8) years prior to termination of the Office Recommendations for Honorary Membership shall be submitted to any member of the Executive Committee for approval and shall be presented at the next annual meeting of the Association. Approval of such Honorary Membership shall be by majority approval of those voting members present. Members who have dishonored the office shall not be allowed to be honorary members.
- D. Associate Members – Nonvoting: Associate membership shall be open to individuals employed by local government unit or other body as defined below, and those individuals who can demonstrate a commitment to the purpose and objectives of the association. Associate membership shall include the following list of positions:
1. Other employees of local government units
 2. Election Administrators
 3. Individuals in transit between municipal jobs
 4. Others not eligible for voting member status

Section 2: Membership Transfers:

When a City Clerk, Recorder or Treasurer of a Municipality becomes disassociated from the office, which qualifies the person for membership, the active membership shall be transferred to the member's successor. However, the disassociated member may continue as a retired or honorary member as set out under Article III.

If such a member holds an appointed or elected office in the Association, that person shall cease to hold such an office when assuming the status of a retired or honorary member.

Arkansas City Clerks, Recorders & Treasurers Association

Section 3: Voting Rights:

Except as otherwise provided in this Constitution, the right to vote shall be limited to active members only, each municipality having one vote; and unless otherwise stated a majority of those members voting on any issue shall be sufficient to carry the vote.

ARTICLE IV: Officers & Terms

Section 1: Qualifications

Officer nominees must be current ACCRTA members who have served actively on at least one committee, held an Institute Workshop meeting, or served as District Director.

Section 2: Offices – Listed

The officers of the Association shall be President, immediate Past President, and Vice President, who shall automatically succeed to the Office of President, Secretary and Treasurer. Officers shall be elected by the membership at the annual meeting of the Association. Officers shall serve on the Executive Committee.

Section 3: Executive Committee – Defined

The Executive Committee shall consist of the officers of the Association, four (4) District Directors, Institute Workshop host, and past presidents, with active or deputy membership in the association.
